

Sheriff Lee Baca supports Paula Boland

Paula Boland is Tough on Crime

"Paula Boland is highly respected throughout the law enforcement community. I support Paula Boland and her plans to make our streets safe."

– Sheriff Lee Baca

"Paul Boland's comprehensive plan to make the Valley safe is evidence that she clearly understands policing issues better than her opponents – it's right on the money."

– Chief Joe Sandoval, California State Police (ret.)

"While some candidates talk touch on crime, Paula Boland has taken a leadership role throughout her public career."

– Assistant Chief of Police David Gascon, LAPD (ret.)

"Please join me by voting for Paula Boland for city council. I worked with her in the state legislature and I know she is a crime-fighter who will work to put more police officers on Valley streets."

– Former Democratic State Senator David Roberti

"From her "One-Strike" legislation targeting child molesters to her "Safe School Campus Law" requiring the expulsion of troublemakers who bring guns to schools, Paula Boland has written laws to help keep our kids safe."

– Honorable Colleen Campbell, Founder, Memory of Victims Everywhere (MOVE)

- Add at least 3,000 new police officers to increase police patrols in our neighborhoods and dramatically reduce 9-1-1 response times
- Fight gangs head-on with special anti-gang units and place a greater emphasis on gang injunctions
- Make public safety the city's #1 budget priority
- Further implement community-based policing and fully restore the Senior Lead Officer program
- Strengthen graffiti abatement programs and step-up prosecutions of graffiti vandals
- Insist that the Valley finally gets its fair share of police officers

Endorsed by Law Enforcement!

Boland Campaign Committee
P.O. Box 33333, Granada Hills, CA 91394
(818) 360-9751

Presorted Std
US Postage
PAID
Victory Mail

Thanks to Paula Boland, child molesters finally get what they deserve

Simi Valley Child Molester to Serve 45 Years to Life for Crime [LA Times, 8-18-01]

'Nightmare' molester sentenced to life [OC Register, 7-28-01]

Molester Sentenced to 15 Years to Life [LA Times, 8-3-96]

Molester of boys gets 385 years to life [SD Union-Tribune, 8-31-02]

Child molester get 14 life terms [SD Union-Tribune, 3-9-02]

Convicted molester given 109 years to life [SD Union-Tribune, 5-2-01]

Molester Gets 540 Years to Life [LA Times, 10-26-96]

Unrepentant Child Molester Gets Three Life Prison Terms [LA Times, 7-13-96]

Paula Boland wrote the "One-Strike-And-You're-Out" law that requires convicted child molesters to receive a mandatory minimum sentence of 15 years to life.

This landmark legislation is still the nation's toughest law targeting child molesters.

"While fighting for us in the State Assembly, Paula Boland wrote California's tough 'One-Strike' law that keeps convicted child molesters behind bars for 15 years to life."

-Harriet Salarno, Crime Victims United*

*For identification purposes only, does not imply organization endorsement.

Paula Boland co-authored "Three-Strikes-And-You're-Out", the "Safe School Campus Law" and many other tough, anti-crime measures while serving as our state assemblywoman from 1990-96.

Daily News

"Paula Boland has successfully sponsored legislation to remove the statute of limitations on child sexual abuse, protect the confidentiality of jurors and to expel students for bringing guns to school."

Daily News

"Paula Boland has been a hardworking and dedicated legislator, especially on crime and education issues."

Daily News

"Boland's passion has been legislation aimed at child abuse... she wrote a bill two years ago calling for life sentences for repeat child molesters."

Paula Boland for City Council.
Because Actions Speak Louder than Words.

Sheriff Lee Baca supports Paula Boland

Republican Paula Boland is Tough on Crime

- Add at least 3,000 new police officers to increase police patrols in our neighborhoods and dramatically reduce 9-1-1 response times
- Fight gangs head-on with special anti-gang units and place a greater emphasis on gang injunctions
- Make public safety the city's #1 budget priority
- Further implement community-based policing and fully restore the Senior Lead Officer program
- Strengthen graffiti abatement programs and step-up prosecutions of graffiti vandals
- Insist that the Valley finally gets its fair share of police officers

"Paula Boland is highly respected throughout the law enforcement community. I support Paula Boland and her plans to make our streets safe."
– Sheriff Lee Baca

"Paul Boland's comprehensive plan to make the Valley safe is evidence that she clearly understands policing issues better than her opponents – it's right on the money."
– Chief Joe Sandoval, California State Police (ret.)

"While some candidates talk touch on crime, Paula Boland has taken a leadership role throughout her public career."
– Assistant Chief of Police David Gascon, LAPD (ret.)

"Paula Boland is a tough, law-and-order Republican who will never quit fighting to make the Valley safe."
– Republican State Senator Tom McClintock

"In the state assembly, Paula Boland's anti-crime legislation is legendary. If you're concerned about public safety, you should vote for Paula Boland."
– Republican Assemblyman Tony Strickland

Endorsed by Law Enforcement!

Boland Campaign Committee
P.O. Box 33333, Granada Hills, CA 91394
(818) 360-9751

Presorted Std
US Postage
PAID
Victory Mail

Thanks to Paula Boland, child molesters finally get what they deserve